No. 12 Union Square, N. Y., Dec. 11th, 1883.

Chauncey J. Reed, 433 7th st. n. w., Washington, D. C.:

Dear Sir: Acting on your suggestion, I have purchased on your account, at the assignee's sale of the effects of the late firm of Peters & Greene, the entire stock at 65 cents on the dollar, based on factory inventory of new stock, and 40 cents on the dollar on estimated value of rented stock. The goods on the floor will be forwarded in time for your holiday trade; the rented instruments as fast as I can get them in. Should these goods be late in arriving, say to purchasers: Wait, and get a piane or organ bran-new, from the most celebrated maker, at less than 50 per cent of price quoted by the regular agent. There is hardly a first class maker of note in the country not represented in this stock, which also embraces piane stools, covers and musical instruments of every description. Believing I have done an act that will meet your hearty approbation, and extending to you the compliments of the season, I am

Your most obedient servant.

I have now in stock—A genuine Chickering Piane; regular price, $700; has 4 round corners, double venered resewood case, massive carved ica and lyre; superb in power and singing quality of tone ered at $250 offered at $165. One peerless upright, in ma charter at $200 one genuine Estey & Co. organ, 1 ar. $175; offered at $60. Second-hand Pianes from. O to $85. Other goods in great variety equally low in price, N.B.—Bring deposit; positively no refusals given without it. Tuning, repairing and moving attended to. An elegant upright Piane, by private party on K street, offered $150 cash, Inquire at store. CHAUNCEY J. REED, COACH, CARRYALL, EXPRESS, BUGGY, TRUCK,

The above offers the most remarkable opportunity for Dealers, Liverymen, Teamsters and citizens in general to see the goods in this line ever offered, as the sale is positive, to the highest bidder. Each Harness will be sold separate, but privilege given to first buyer to take the balance of each lot.

A CAPTAIN SAVED. How a Member of Her Majesty's Ser-

(Hamilton, Ont., Spectator.) Some little commotion was occasioned several months ago regarding the experience of a gentleman well subject of general conversation. In order to ascertain this paper was dispatched yesterday to interview the gen-tleman in question with the following result:

After the overflow of the fish dams, many people were engaged in catching fish with hook and line Captain W. H. Nicholls, formerly in Her Majesty's service, is a man well advanced in years, who has evidently seen much of the world. Endowed by nature with a strong constitution he was enabled to endure hardships under which many men would have succumbed. Through all privation and exposure he preserved his constitution unimpaired. A number of years ago, however, he began to feel a strange undermining of his life. He noticed that he had less energy than formerly; that his appetite was uncertain and changing; that he was unaccountably weary at certain times and correspondingly energetic at others; that his head pained him, first in front and then at the base of the brain, and that his heart was unusually irregular in its action. All these troubles he attributed to some passing disorder and gave them little attention, but they seemed to increase in violence continually. To the writer he said: "I never for a moment thought these things amounted to anything serious, and I gave them little, if any, thought; but I felt myself growing weaker all the while, and could in no way account for it." "Did you take no steps to check these symptoms?" "Very little, if any. I thought they were only temdication increased until my body began to fill with nays, 12. water, and finally swelled to enormous proportions. I was afflicted with acute' rheumatic pains, and was fearful at times that it would attack my heart. I consulted Merchants' mills struck this morning. My self nor any of my family had the slightest hope of my recovery. In this condition a number of months passed by, during which time I had to sit constantly in an easy chair, not being able to lie down, lest I should choke to death. The slight pains I had at first experienced increased to most terrible agonies.

My thirst was intense, and a good portion of the time. myself nor any of my family had the slightest hope of a union. agony I endured. I was unable to eat or even swallow fluids. My strength entirely deserted me, and I was so exhausted that I prayed day and night for death. The doctors could not relieve me, and I was left in a condition to die, and that, too, of Bright's disease of the kidneys in its most terrible form. I think I should have died had I not learned of a gentleman who had suffered course of treatment which entirely cured him. I accord- urday. ingly began, and at once felt a change for the better going on in my system. In the course of a week the swelling had gone from my abdomen and diminished all over my body, and I felt like another man. I continued the treatment, and am happy to say that I was entirely cured through the wonderful, almost miraculous, power of Warner's Safe Cure, which I consider the most valuable discovery of modern times." "And you feel apparently well now?" "Yes, indeed. I am in good health, eat heartily, and cision has been lodged. both the doctors and my friends are greatly surprised and gratified at my remarkable restoration, after I was virtually in the grave. My daughter, who has been terribly troubled with a pain in her back caused by kidney trouble, has also been cured by means of this same great remedy, and my family and myself have constituted ourselves a kind of missionary society for supplying the poor of our neighborhood with the remedy which has been so invaluable to us." As the writer was returning home he reflected upon the statements of the noble old man with whom he had less England shall secure the Soudan in the conversed, and was impressed not only with the truth of his assertions, but also with the sincerity of all his acts. And he could not but wish that the thousands who are suffering with minor troubles which become so serious unless taken in time might know of Captain Nicholls' experience and the manner in which he was saved. And that is the cause of this article.

FROM CHERRY HILL TO THE DISTRICT JAIL.—Yes terday Deputy Joharris returned from Philadelphia bringing with him Frank Buckey, alias Bucky Taylor, whose time at Cherry Hill prison, in that city, to which he was sentenced for burgiary, was out yesterday. He is under indictment here with Horace Hovan, alias Little Horace, and George Carson, alias Haywood, for robbing Mr. G. H. B. White, cashier of the National Metropolitan Bank of bonds, &c., amounting to $5,600, on July 2d, 1880. On his arrival he was at once committed to jail. Taylor, who is quite notorious as a sneak thief, is a native of Troy, N. Y. About three years ago he was arrested with ittle Horace for robbing a store in Philadelphia, and each received a sentence of three years.

Prof. Matthews in the Watchman.

An American who has been accustomed to hearing the great representative preachers of his own country in the largest cities is surprised to learn that, with a few exceptions, the ablest and most eloquent divines of England are not to be found in the pulpits of the great metropolis. Within a few years there has been a decided decline in the pulpit oratory of London. Thomson, Magee, Alford, Goulburn and Boyd have been lost by cathedral or church elevation; the Bishop of Peterboro, the most eloquent of Episcopal preachers, has gone to the north; R. W. Dale, the ablest and most scholarly of the Congregational preachers, is at Birmingham; Mr. Maclaren, the most thoughtful and protested of all the Bantist preachers, is at Manches. arly of the Congregational preachers, is at Birmingham; Mr. Maclaren, the most thoughtful and poished of all the Baptist preachers, is at Manchester, and Mr. Martineau, the most powerful champion of Unitarianism, occupied, till he ceased preaching, a pulpit in Liverpool. Wendell Phillips' Funeral.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Wendell Phillips took place in Hollis-street chapel, Boston, yesterday. The services were private, only persons invited being present. Among those in the chapel were Governor Robinson, Mayor Martin, the board of aldermen in a body, fifty members of the common council, Lucy Stone Biackwell, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Elizur Wright, Mrs. J. D. Fields, Phillips Brooks, Joseph Cook, Joseph Freeman Clarke, Miss Alcott, Susan B. Anthony, Fred. Douglass, the three nephews of the deceased, and Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes, jr. After the services the body was taken to Fancuil Hall, where the public was admitted.
